Welcome to another issue of JATS (actually a double issue). This issue contains several articles that address current challenges within the church, but within a Biblical-based perspective as is the goal of ATS research. Such issues include environmental concerns, the nature of the Trinity (an old issue, yet still current within Adventism and other Christian denominations), dealing with ecclesiological tensions, as well as gender and sexuality questions. We also have contributions dealing with key Adventist beliefs such as creation, the Holy Spirit, and the Spirit of Prophecy.

We also want to bring to the attention of our readers a new publication. ATS is pleased to announce the publication of a two volume multi-authored work on the Psalms edited by Richard Davidson and Edgard Horna. This work is being published in both Spanish and English. Volume 1, which is completed, includes articles (in addition to those by the editors) by Merling Alomía, Elias Brasil de Souza and Jônatas de Mattos Leal, Christian Varela and Joel Iparraguirre, Jiří Moskala, Christine Vetne, Grenville Kent, Jerome Skinner, Kye Sang Ha, Allan Bornapé M., Alvaro F. Rodríguez, Carlos Elías Mora, and Victor M. Armenteros. The second volume will soon follow. You will want to keep an eye out for these exciting and important volumes. We will provide updated information in our next issue—also check our ATS Newsletter for additional information on the project.

As always, we want to remind our readers that articles from past issues of JATS can be found on our website: www.atsjats.org, as well as current ATS happenings. You may also wish to utilize our additional website
